

Build your online office with RB Web 8

RB Web 8 is part of the RB8 suite of products, and requires RB8 office management software to operate. It is available for purchase or on a subscription basis.

Everything you need

If you already own RB8, you can purchase or subscribe to RB Web 8. It includes:

- Contact module contains calendar and account activity for attorneys, paralegals, secretaries and insurance adjusters, plus online case and transcript repositories.
- Resource module contains calendar and pay information for reporters and other resources, plus a job turn-in wizard and time-off scheduler.
- Smart order form, online order form that lets users create new requests from old ones.
- Attorney of Record access, plug-in that lets you can grant non-ordering attorneys access to an RB Web calendar of depositions for cases on which they are attorneys of record. You can also grant non-billed clients access to the case repository.
- Office module contains daily job assignment, client and resource information for managers to access when away from the office.

RB Web 8 includes:

- Set-up service,
- Branding with your company logo,
- Link to your RB8 server,*
- Optional link to your company web site.

Support is mandatory, but is included free for the first year. After that, an annual support fee of $750/year for each RB Web 8 office system purchased is required.

Add special services

RB Web 8 can be further customized with:

- Calendar plug-in gives sales reps and reporters with their own clients the ability to see their clients' calendars.
- Points plug-in that works with the RB8 points plug-in to give your clients access to their rewards points online.
- Custom terminology to match your client's in-house terminology to minimize their need for retraining employees.
- SSL certification for an additional layer of security.

* If you want to link RB Web 8 to multiple RB8 servers, you must purchase as many RB Web 8 systems as you have RB8 servers.

 Not available in subscription version of RB Web.

 Available only in subscription version of RB Web.

Looking for a cost-effective way to provide online services?

Subscribe to RB Web

If you are looking for a cost-effective way to give clients and resources convenient, secure access to your RB office online with case repositories, calendars, order forms, job turn-in and financial info, consider subscribing to RB Web.

With it, you can offer the same services as RB Web 8, including smart online order forms, but for a much smaller up-front investment and no need to hire tech support.

Instead of buying, installing and maintaining your own RB Web system, we host your RB Web site on our servers for a monthly subscription fee, standard support included. All you need to do is connect your RB Server to the Internet via a DSL or faster connection with your own static IP address.

For details about system requirements, download the System Requirements PDF from our website (www.omti.com/rb/RBWeb/RBWeb.asp).

And all that your clients and resources need is a browser and your URL. (RB Web works in Internet Explorer or Firefox running on Windows, or Firefox or Safari running on Mac OS X.)

If you ever decide to purchase RB Web to bring your site in-house, we'll move your RB Web data to your new web server for no additional charge.

To subscribe to RB Web and begin your no-obligation, 30-day free trial, contact RB Sales.
